

Batavia Women in Business Welcome Leadership and Business Coach MARIANNE RENNER

From Chaos to Clarity

How to make big progress without big stress

Does it seem like the day takes you over, leaving you stressed out, overwhelmed, and out of control?

When you get stuck in the chaos, you lose clarity on what matters most. You miss opportunities that are right in front of you.

Move from chaos to clarity, and gain control over your day. Get big results in things that matter most, and bring more fulfillment and purpose into your life.

In this keynote, learn how to:

- Get a clear sense of direction toward your most valuable objectives
- Identify and prioritize the most important tasks
- Eliminate the clutter so you can see the big opportunities that might get missed

This keynote presentation will inspire you to focus and prioritize in a new way so you can win the big game, no matter how you define it.

ABOUT MARIANNE RENNER:

Marianne Renner is a transformational leadership coach and motivational speaker. She has helped hundreds of aspiring and emerging leaders move from chaos to clarity so they can become all they were meant to become.

Marianne has been described as dynamic, engaging, thought-provoking and inspiring. Her meaningful messages move leaders toward practical steps that help them get real results in business.

With experience in understanding human behavior, communication, and problem-solving techniques, Marianne helps leaders and businesses identify and achieve their most important goals.

Marianne understands the importance of setting goals and having a clear plan to reach those goals. She has owned two businesses, founded a not-for-profit organization for at-risk youth, and was a bodybuilding champion and highly sought-after fitness instructor, having led two youth dance teams to win Gold Medals in the National Junior Olympics.
